

Cloud Support and AI Product MVP in Educational Publishing

Client 	Industry Media & Publishing
Service Teams as a Service	Capabilities Cloud & Infrastructure, Product Engineering

Harvard Business Publishing covers a wide array of educational tools and resources, from higher education to corporate and AI-assisted business learning.

unosquare has transitioned all of HBP applications from legacy self-managed infrastructures to micro-frontends with RES microservices hosted on AWS.

Our team has continued to manage all post-migration maintenance, upgrades and new feature enhancements, as well as spearheading the development of an AI-based MVP release called HBR Spark.
